

To be read at my funeral.

Goodbye

I'm sorry if I didn't get the opportunity to say "Goodbye" to many friends who have come my way
Your friendship has meant so much to me
I pray we will meet again some day.
I am going to rejoice at my Saviours side
I pray you will also with Him abide Jesus allowed His blood to be shed on Calvary's Tree to redeem sinners like you and like me.
He said we must repent if we want to be forgiven and then ask Him to cleanse our souls within Salvation for no-one is automatic if we don't repent, we will remain static.
Jesus doesn't force His Will on you or on me
He offers salvation as a gift and gifts are free.
So I beg you come to Him while you may because you may not get the opportunity on another day But I do pray one day you and I will abide rejoicing together at our precious Saviour's side.

By Olive Borland